

McDONOUGH LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

The McDonough Center for Leadership and Business offers Marietta College students membership in one of the most comprehensive undergraduate leadership development programs in the United States. The program helps students gain a deeper understanding of leadership, practice their leadership skills, and in the process grow as engaged leaders on campus, in the local community, and beyond. McDonough Scholars describe themselves as “fast-tracked,” and better prepared than other students to enter both their workplace and their residential communities. For more information, please visit us at mcdonough.marietta.edu.

Criteria for admission into the McDonough Leadership Program: (1) strong record of academic achievement (minimum 3.0 grade point average; minimum 500 SAT scores in Critical Reading and Writing; minimum 21 ACT scores in English and Reading); (2) evident record of leadership in high school and/or in the community; and (3) thoughtful and complete answers to the questions in the McDonough application form.

To be considered for membership in the McDonough Leadership Program, carefully complete the following five questions, taking time to be thoughtful in your answers. Please attach your typed answers to this completed application and return it to Marietta College's Office of Admission. For your convenience, you can also apply online by visiting McDonough's web site at mcdonough.marietta.edu.

1. Why would you like to study leadership?
2. What leadership roles did you have while you were in high school?
3. Whom do you consider the most important leader who has lived during your lifetime and why?
4. When were you disappointed by someone in a leadership position and why?
5. Leaders often exhibit passion for an issue or need that they want to address in their community. Describe something you are passionate about and discuss how you would like to use your leadership ability in this area.
